THE CHURCH DAILY PRAYER AND THE EUCHARIST

WHY IS THE CHURCH BELL RINGING?

These are very difficult times; although the Churches are closed to public worship the Vicar and other Ministers will continue in prayer for everyone and each time of prayer and will begin with the ringing of the church bell.

Similarly, the Eucharist or Holy Communion will be said privately in one or more of the churches at 10.30am every Sunday.

These are not acts of public worship and regretfully the doors will be locked at these times.

There are resources in church for you to take away so you may join in your own homes when you hear the Church Bell.

The churches are open for private prayer at all other times during the day.
