Combined Benefice Eucharist for the benefices of Embleton, Rennington & Rock, Lesbury with Almouth and Longhoughton with Howick

in Embleton Church at 4.00pm on Sunday 31 October.

Bishop Christine will license the Reverend Alison Hardy as our Priest-in Charge at this service. The Reverend Ian Chadwick will be licensed as assistant priest for all three benefices at the same service. The Reverend Barrie Cooper is already licensed as assistant priest for all three benefices.

The service will still be followed by refreshments in the Creighton Hall in Embleton, but this will not now be a bring and share event.

This service is for everyone in our parishes, and you will be most welcome to attend.

Second-hand coats for 'The Coat Rail'

Anne Wager-Bradley is appealing for second-hand coats for deprived families living at Bedlington Station. There is to be a community event in Bedlington in late November, this will include 'The Coat Rail'. People in need will be able to get a coat for themselves or their children. Coats of all sorts and all sizes are needed. Please leave them in your church ready for collection.

Thank you very much!
